INVITE YOU TO A……..

CULTURAL TALK ON THE CITY OF CHICAGO

FECHA, 14th February 2013

17-18 h. (hora)

ROOM: Sala de Traducción Simultanea

Chicago: My Kind of Town

This cultural talk will provide an introduction to a city that both fascinates and has a particular connection with the speaker, Brian Engquist. Focussing on the art, architecture, people and peculiar history of this metropolis which sprang up on the edge of the American prairie, it will attempt to explore the heart, soul and human side to a town whose clean façades often hide its rough origins. We will learn why it is indeed “The City of the Big Shoulders” and maybe decide to visit it ourselves one day.

Brian Engquist

Brian Engquist is a long-time resident of Spain, having spent the last 20 years comfortably settled in his adopted home of Madrid where he has taught English, worked in teacher training and enjoyed life.
