THIS IS ENGLAND (98 min.)

A 2006 British drama written and directed by Shane Meadows. The film illustrates young skinheads in England in 1983 and how their subculture became adopted by white nationalists, which led to divisions within the skinhead scene.

PLOT
Shaun, a 12 year-old schoolboy, gets into a fight at school after someone makes an offensive joke about his father, who died in the Falklands War. On his way home Shaun runs into a group of young skinheads led by Woody, who feels sympathy for Shaun and invites him to join the group.
